

SUSAN KING

Susan King is a wife to an amazing man named David, mom to four incredible gifts from God named Katie, Emily, Sarah, and Patrick, and mother-in-law to a super son-in-law named Curt. A published writer, inspirational speaker, and devoted Bible teacher, Susan lives in China Grove, North Carolina. She helps lead Covenant Ministries and teaches a weekly adult Sunday School class with an average attendance of 90 persons at First Baptist Church in Salisbury, NC. Since her life has been impacted by autism, Susan loves to encourage and assist others in the special needs community. Her greatest passion is to help others thrive in their relationship with Jesus in the midst of life's ongoing challenges and struggles. Susan's speaking engagements have placed her before special needs communities, teachers, and Christian audiences. She loves digging into the scriptures and sharing with others how Biblical truths can be applied to daily living. Susan has a bachelor of science in journalism degree from the Ohio University School of Journalism, where she was named the Outstanding Graduate of 1983. She worked in public relations, advertising, and marketing for 14 years prior to being called to quit work. When she is not speaking, teaching, or writing, she enjoys coaxing her extremely mellow golden retriever Grace outside for a walk in God's beautiful creation.
