“When Jesus saw the crowds, He went up on the mountain; and after He sat down, His disciples came to Him. 2 He opened His mouth and began to teach them, saying,”— Matt. 5:1-2

“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.”— Matt. 5:3

“The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. 2 He makes me lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside quiet waters. 3 He restores my soul; He guides me in the paths of righteousness for His name’s sake. 4 Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no evil, for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me. 5 You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You have anointed my head with oil; My cup overflows. 6 Surely goodness and lovingkindness will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.”— Psalm 23

“And my God will supply all your needs according to His riches in glory in Christ Jesus.”— Phil. 4:19

“Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.”— Matt. 5:4

“Then the Lord saw that the wickedness of man was great on the earth, and that every intent of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. 6 The Lord was sorry that He had made man on the earth, and He was grieved in His heart.”— Gen. 6:5-6

“Be gracious to me, O God, according to Your lovingkindness; according to the greatness of Your compassion blot out my transgressions. 2 Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin. 3 For I know my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me. 4 Against You, You only, I have sinned and done what is evil in Your sight, so that You are justified when You speak and blameless when You judge . . . 7 Purify me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow. 8 Make me to hear joy and gladness, let the bones which You have broken rejoice. 9 Hide Your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquities. 10 Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me . . . 17 The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and a contrite heart, O God, You will not despise.”—Ps. 51:1-4, 7-10, 17

“Peter said to them, ‘Repent, and each of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. 39 For the promise is for you and your children and for all who are far off, as many as the Lord our God will call to Himself.’”— Acts 2:38-39

“Search me, O God, and know my heart; try me and know my anxious thoughts; 24 and see if there be any hurtful way in me, and lead me in the everlasting way.”— Ps. 139:23-24

“If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.”— 1 John 1:9

“Blessed are the gentle, for they shall inherit the earth.”— Matt. 5:5

"For I have come down from heaven, not to do My own will, but the will of Him who sent Me."— John 6:38

Have this attitude in yourselves which was also in Christ Jesus, 6 who, although He existed in the form of God, did not regard equality with God a thing to be grasped, 7 but emptied Himself, taking the form of a bond-servant, and being made in the likeness of men. 8 Being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.”— Phil. 2:5-8

“Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven; but he who does the will of My Father who is in heaven.”— Matt. 7:21

“His divine power has granted to us everything pertaining to life and godliness, through the true knowledge of Him who called us by His own glory and excellence.”— 2 Pe. 1:3

“We will obtain an inheritance which is imperishable and undefiled and will not fade away, reserved in heaven for us.”— 1 Pe. 1:4

“Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth passed away, and there is no longer any sea. 2 And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, made ready as a bride adorned for her husband. 3 And I heard a loud voice from the throne, saying, ‘Behold, the tabernacle of God is among men, and He will dwell among them, and they shall be His people, and God Himself will be among them, 4 and He will wipe away every tear from their eyes; and there will no longer be any death; there will no longer be any mourning, or crying, or pain; the first things have passed away.’— Rev. 21:1-4

“Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied.”— Matt. 5:6

“For the love of Christ controls us, having concluded this, that one died for all, therefore all died; 15 and He died for all, so that they who live might no longer live for themselves, but for Him who died and rose again on their behalf . . . 17 Therefore if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creature; the old things passed away; behold, new things have come . . . 20a Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ . . . 21 He made Him who knew no sin to be sin on our behalf, so that we might become the righteousness of God in Him.”— 2 Cor. 5:14-15, 17, 20a, 21

“And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may prove what the will of God is, that which is good and acceptable and perfect.”— Rom. 12:2

“But now He has obtained a more excellent ministry, by as much as He is also the mediator of a better covenant, which has been enacted on better promises.”— Heb. 8:6

“For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put My laws into their minds, and I will write them on their hearts. And I will be their God, and they shall be My people. 11 And they shall not teach everyone his fellow citizen, and everyone his brother, saying, ‘Know the Lord,’ for all will know Me, from the least to the greatest of them. 12 For I will be merciful to their iniquities, and I will remember their sins no more.”— Heb. 8:10-12

“That I may know Him and the power of His resurrection and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death.”— Phil. 3:10

“Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy.”— Matt. 5:7

“For this reason the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his slaves. 24 When he had begun to settle them, one who owed him ten thousand talents was brought to him. 25 But since he did not have the means to repay, his lord commanded him to be sold, along with his wife and children and all that he had, and repayment to be made. 26 So the slave fell to the ground and prostrated himself before him, saying, ‘Have patience with me and I will repay you everything.’ 27 And the lord of that slave felt compassion and released him and forgave him the debt. 28 But that slave went out and found one of his fellow slaves who owed him a hundred denarii; and he seized him and began to choke him, saying, ‘Pay back what you owe.’ 29 So his fellow slave fell to the ground and began to plead with him, saying, ‘Have patience with me and I will repay you.’ 30 But he was unwilling and went and threw him in prison until he should pay back what was owed. 31 So when his fellow slaves saw what had happened, they were deeply grieved and came and reported to their lord all that had happened. 32 Then summoning him, his lord said to him, ‘You wicked slave, I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. 33 Should you not also have had mercy on your fellow slave, in the same way that I had mercy on you?’ 34 And his lord, moved with anger, handed him over to the torturers until he should repay all that was owed him. 35 My heavenly Father will also do the same to you, if each of you does not forgive his brother from your heart.”— Matt. 18:23-35

“Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.”— Luke 6:36

“For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.”— Rom. 6:23

“Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to His great mercy has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.”— 1 Pe. 1:3

“Let us therefore draw near with confidence to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and may find grace to help in time of need.”— Heb. 4:16

“Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.”— Matt. 5:8

“And you will seek Me and find [Me,] when you search for Me with all your heart.”— Jer. 29:13

“Because this people draw near with their words And honor Me with their lip service, but they remove their hearts far from Me, and their reverence for Me consists of tradition learned [by rote,].” — Isa. 29:13

“Delight yourself in the Lord; And He will give you the desires of your heart.” — Ps. 37:4

“The secret of the Lord is for those who fear Him, and He will make them know His covenant.” — Ps. 25:14

“Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God.” — Matt. 5:9

“Therefore having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.” — Rom. 5:1

“Now all these things are from God, who reconciled us to Himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation, 19 namely, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and He has committed to us the word of reconciliation. 20 Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God were making an appeal through us; we beg you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God.” — 2 Cor. 5:18-20

“Blessed are those who have been persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. 11 Blessed are you when people insult you and persecute you, and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of Me. 12 Rejoice and be glad, for your reward in heaven is great; for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.” — Matt. 5:10-12

“These things I have spoken to you, that in Me you may have peace. In the world you have tribulation, but take courage; I have overcome the world.” — John 16:33

“And indeed, all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will be persecuted.” — 2 Tim. 3:12

“Remember the word that I said to you, ‘A slave is not greater than his master.’ If they persecuted Me, they will also persecute you; if they kept My word, they will keep yours also.” — John 15:20

“Behold, I am coming quickly, and My reward [is] with Me, to render to every man according to what he has done.” — Rev. 22:12

“You are the salt of the earth; but if the salt has become tasteless, how can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything, except to be thrown out and trampled under foot by men. 14 You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden; 15 nor does anyone light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on the lampstand, and it gives light to all who are in the house. 16 Let your light shine before men in such a way that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father who is in heaven.”— Matt. 5:13-16

“I am no longer in the world; and yet they themselves are in the world, and I come to You. Holy Father, keep them in Your name, the name which You have given Me, that they may be one even as We are.”— John 17:11

“I have given them Your word; and the world has hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. 15 I do not ask You to take them out of the world, but to keep them from the evil one. 16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.”—John 17:14-16

“Then Jesus again spoke to them, saying, ‘I am the Light of the world; he who follows Me will not walk in the darkness, but will have the Light of life.’”— John 8:12

“Whether, then, you eat or drink or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.”— 1 Cor. 10:31

“Christ in you, the hope of glory.”— Col. 1:27
